

1. I've added a TW and i3/i3status integration section. I believe TW output can be nicely integrated with conky. If someone uses conky and TW, they could add a section about it at the bottom. I don't use conky.
2. If something does not really sound "English", please feel free to point it out / or change it. — Marcin Herda 2012/09/06 12:01
