

I think I prefer this to the original — Brian Lawrence 2012/10/18 13:55

So do I. Personally, I'd also use a two-column layout for bottom sections as well (the Help subsections?). It's easier to read and looks more balanced (especially on bigger screens). Having said that, I agree with Eric not willing to make the front page look much different than the rest of the wiki. — Marcin Herda 2012/10/18 15:56
